

EXAU

Digital Gold

EXAU Gold is a gold-backed token issued for institutional and professional investors, designed to provide its holder an alternative financial instrument that has a broad scope of use and can serve as a shelter, as collateral but also as a mean of payment

Composition

EXAU Gold has a variable composition of investment gold and US dollars. The gold is 24k LBMA certified. The presence of US dollars is required to cover custody and audit costs needed to ensure the security of the instrument. The Gold price is fixed in US dollar, hence its choice other than its market stability and correlation..

Usage

EXAU Gold consists of investment Gold of varying sizes at 24k LBMA certified along with a small percentage of cash (USD).

Cross-chain structured to ensure compatibility with major blockchains, EXAU Gold retains all the features which categorise it as both a financial instrument and expendable currency. A solution trustable for:

- Banks in case a collateral is needed for a bridge loan;
- Holders as an asset against the market volatility;
- Exchange platforms as a reliable stablecoin.

Summary

EXAU Gold is unquestionably a financial instrument covering several needs.

The digital nature of the token allows it to be portable and tradable in any situation. Where the need is to have a financial instrument in which to invest, that guarantees resilience to market turmoil and an haven asset, then EXAU Gold is the most appropriate solution.

For a secure, immediate, and non-currency related means of payment, EXAU Gold is second to none. When the need is for a collateral in order to provide a security for the financial institution to obtain credit, EXAU Gold is the solution.
